Hyderabad's First KCD

Hyderabad is fast becoming India's technology capital, with global giants like Amazon, Google, Apple, and Microsoft establishing major offices here. The city is home to countless techies working on cutting-edge innovations.

Recognizing Hyderabad's prominence and its active cloud-native community, we knew we had to do something big. Thus, the city's first-ever Kubernetes Community Day (KCD) was born, marking a significant milestone in our tech journey.
